Sheriff Sampson came and presented Mr. Kelley and a representative of Motorola Company to discuss a new communications system for mobile units, the sheriff's office, the state police and towns of the county. The cost to be borne by the county of about $20,000 a year for 5 years would relieve the towns and cities of this expense.

Mr. Bryant, representing estate of Maurice Witmer, the architect for the County Building appeared and requested that the balance of $7,733.81 due on the contract be paid.

In executive session, Comm. Bartlett explained the situation and no action was taken.

Commissioner Bartlett then spoke of several items in the budget, speaking of requests for Community Action Program, Fire Fighting School, Surplus Food to be distributed on a county level.

Executive Committee
Friday, May 15, 1970
10:30 A.M.

County Building
Exeter, N. H.

The Executive Committee of the Rockingham County Delegation met at 10:30 on Friday, May 15 at the County Building in Exeter. Present were County Commissioners Bartlett, Hall and Brown and Representatives Dame, Gay, Weeks, Spollett, Gelt, Underwood, Cummings, Maynard, Sewall, Eastman, Palmer, and Leavitt.

Mr. Lothrop, the County Treasurer, explained the problems he has had recently in borrowing money for the County. By unanimous vote he was authorized to borrow money up to the amount of the budget. He presented two requests: (1) That authorization for borrowing be made at the same meeting as when the budget is adopted. A majority of the Executive Committee is always present at this time and it would remove the necessity for a special meeting for this purpose. (2) That at the next session of the Legislature the present law RSA 28:24 as found in Chapter 383:2 which required advertising for borrowing be amended so that tax anticipation notes and notes of short duration are omitted. It was suggested that the words "excluding tax anticipation notes and notes of a short duration" could be used.

On motion by Mrs. Palmer it was voted that the County Attorney in cooperation with the County Commissioners investigate the laws in regard to bonding to determine what is required by law and what is simply a rule of the bonding company.

The various items of the budget were reviewed in detail and all were approved as printed including the Cash Report on revenue.

Another request from Mrs. Witmer's lawyer was received requesting payment for architect's fee on the County Building. It was voted that the County Delegation Chairman contact the lawyer and inform him that the architect will be paid when the job is completed to the satisfaction of the County Commissioners.

It was noted that membership of the Building Committee is incomplete, due to deaths and vacancies. The Chairman was requested to make the necessary appointments.

The meeting adjourned at 12:06.

Executive Committee
Rockingham County
Wednesday, August 19, 1970

County Building
Exeter, N. H.

A meeting of the Executive Committee was called on August 19 for the purpose of reviewing the expenditures in the second quarter. The three County Commissioners were present also Representatives: Dame, Gay, Weeks, Maynard, Eastman, Leavitt, Casassa, Underwood, Cummings, and Sewall.

Items in the financial report were reviewed in detail. Problems in relation to Expenses of Superior Court were discussed. The relation of the medi-care program to the County Home and Hospital was discussed. An interesting discussion was held in relation to the medical referee. Explanations were made by the County Commissioners on all items questioned.

In accepting the figure on interest on temporary loans, an opinion from the Attorney General as to the legality of reinvesting borrowed money was requested. By request of the Executive Committee, the Chairman of the Delegation, on behalf of the Delegation, is requested to ask for such a ruling.

Corrected total figures were accepted. The cash report was accepted.

A letter from Commissioner Bartlett was read in regard to the seriousness of the drug situation in the county including a request that the Executive Committee cooperate and assist in setting up a committee of three parts. A copy of the letter is included with these minutes and by vote of the committee the request for cooperation was granted.

A moment of silence was observed in respectful memory of Hon. H. Dean Shindledecker, the vice-chairman of the delegation.

The Chairman appointed Herbert Casassa to serve as vice chairman for the remainder of the term.

The Committee adjourned at 12:30 for a smorgasbord lunch in the cafeteria.

Friday, October 30, 1970

County Building
Exeter, N. H.

The meeting of the Executive Committee on October 30 was called to order at 10:30 A.M. by Rep. Dame Chairman of the Delegation. Present were Representatives Underwood, Leavitt, Gelt, Spollett, Dame, Palmer, Maynard, Jameson, Sewall, Eastman, Gay, Cummings, Casassa, and Weeks and Commissioners Hall and Bartlett.

A letter from Hayford Kimball of resignation from the Building Committee was read. The Chairman stated that the resignation was accepted with regret and that he would appoint a successor to Mr. Kimball and notify the members of the appointment.

Then Rep. Gay as Chairman of the Executive Committee presided while each item of the budget was considered. With the exception of Care and Supplies for the Exeter Court House and Medical Referee, the items of the county budget are in good condition. There appears to be sufficient surplus in some items to take care of a deficit in others. On motion by Rep. Maynard, seconded by Rep. Gelt it was voted to authorize the County Commissioners to make necessary transfers of unexpended funds from one department to another and to spend any surplus which has been acquired.

On motion by Rep. Leavitt, seconded by Rep. Spollett, it was voted that the Executive Committee recommend that the Treasurer reinvest money borrowed in anticipation of taxes. This action was taken following the reading of a letter from the Attorney General in reply to the question sent him as requested at the last meeting of the Executive Committee. The Clerk was instructed to write a notification to Mr. Lothrop of this action.

Rep. Cummings gave a brief report on a recent meeting of the Building Committee with suggestions proposed by the Committee in regard to a new 100 bed extended care hospital addition.

Meeting adjourned at 11:54 A.M.

FOREWORD

The Rockingham County Home and Hospital has been subjected to the same cost analysis procedure as has been employed throughout the past few years. The results have been expressed on the basis of "per patient day" or "per unit" in order to provide data that might be compared with other institutions or utilized for purposes of Federal or State programs that are reimbursed on the basis of reasonable cost.

I am, again this year, indebted to the hospital administrative staff for their assistance and cooperation.

Respectfully submitted,
Duane L. Keeler

CHAPLAIN'S REPORT

To the Administrator and County Commissioners of Rockingham County Home and Hospital:

In accordance with existing statutes, I submit the following report of religious services performed by me to Catholic residents and patients at Rockingham County Home & Hospital for the year 1970.

During that period, fifteen patients in critical condition required the Sacrament of the Sick. Two other patients, because of advanced age, also received this Sacrament.

During each month of the past year, an average of twenty-two residents and patients received Holy Communion and Confessions were heard for an equal amount of patients.

Other pastoral visits were made, averaging approximately two per month. These were made, on some occasions, at the request of specific patients. Other of these visits were of general social nature.

Religious articles, rosaries and medals were distributed on three or four occasions to the general Catholic population.

An Easter Mass was celebrated with the participation of a children's choir, who after the service managed a personal visit to most of the residents and patients in various rooms and wards.

This report is closed on a note of personal appreciation to you, Mr. Hilton, and your staff for the cooperation extended me during the past year.

Sincerely yours,
Rev. Louis A. Langevin, Pastor
St. Joseph Church
Epping, N. H.

TO THE HONORABLE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF ROCKINGHAM COUNTY

Gentlemen:

The year 1970 has been one of continued efforts to improve the care of patients while developing programs for nursing education through monthly symposiums and autopsies, for improved rehabilitation practices and for treatment of Drug abuse in addicted Jail inmates under the guidance of Walker Wheeler.

The Medical Staff meets with the heads of the Nursing Staff the 2nd. Wednesday of each month to review problems and discuss cases. There has been an excellent esprit de corps between the administration, nursing, and medical staff. The medical care is provided by Dr. Edwin Lee and Dr. Hugo Hochschild part time and Dr. Hermann Sander full time. Dr. Robert Judson will be added to the staff in 1971 to assist in meeting the increased demands. Total patient visits for 1970 were 3398.

The Physical Therapy Department now has a full time Therapist in Mrs. Shirley Nelson and two P. T. Aides, Miss Judith Frizzle and Mrs. Christine Sharpe, who with Mrs. Carolyn Brouillette attended a one week course in Stroke Therapy at St. Luke's Hospital in New Bedford, Mass. under the Direction of Dr. Bertram Howard on the care of the Acute Stroke Patient, which the Rockingham County Home & Hospital will be fully equipped to undertake in 1971.

We are ever mindful of the selfless care given by Dr. John Blaisdell in the past and feel the loss of his companionship and help resulting from his ill health.

Starting in Nov. 1970, a series of monthly Symposiums were started and will be continued the 3rd Wednesday of each month at which doctors from other hospitals are invited to join us for dinner preceeding the presentation of cases.

The schedule of Programs is as follows:

Nov. 1970	Sex Education in the School.
Dec. 1970	Skin problems in the aged - discussed by Dr. Edmund Piper of Hampton.

- Jan. 1971 Cardiac Problems, discussed by Dr. Bruce Talmadge, Cardiologist at the Exeter Hospital.
- Feb. 1971 Pulmonary Problems, discussed by Dr. Robert Judson of our Staff and Exeter Hospital.
- Mar. 1971 Infections and Antibiotics in Geriatric practice, discussed by Dr. Michael McGill of Exeter.
- Apr. 1971 Urinary Tract Problems, discussed by Dr. Paul Tessier, Urologist of Portsmouth.
- May 1971 Evaluation of Parkinsonism Treatment with L-Dopa, presentation and discussion of cases by Dr. Hermann Sander of our Staff.
- June 1971 Postmortem, presentation and discussion by Dr. Hugo Hochschild and Dr. Dennis Carlson, Pathologist at Exeter Hospital.

During the past year there has been a marked increase in the number of Drug Addicts admitted to our Jail which has made it necessary for us to become involved in drug withdrawal problems and efforts to do something toward the rehabilitation of these men. Toward this end, Mr. Walker Wheeler of the State Alcohol and Drug Abuse Program has started to work with us as a psychiatric - social worker.

Without the help of a most efficient and cooperative nursing staff the work now being done would be impossible.

In April 1971 a Medex just finishing an intensive three month training program at the Dartmouth Medical School will join me in my practice and will work with me and the staff in helping to provide better care and coverage at the Rockingham County Home & Hospital. This is a new program Federally funded this year in an attempt to compensate for the depleted medical care in rural areas. Should it prove successful the machinery is all set up to provide more of these corpsmen from the various branches of the service to help us as medical assistants.

Respectfully submitted,
Hermann N. Sander, M.D.
Medical Director

CHAPLAIN'S REPORT

To the Honorable Board of Commissioners of Rockingham County:

A year ago in October the long range plan of the Administrator and the County Commissioners of the Rockingham County Home and Hospital to provide for a creative meeting of the spiritual needs of the residents and patients was put into effect. This plan was based on the realization that the function of the County Home and Hospital should be to provide total care with concern for the total needs of the patients and residents. Among the most important of these needs are those of the spirit and this plan was designed to provide a creative meeting of these.

This is the first such program to be instituted in New Hampshire so far as County Homes are concerned and there has been much interest in it. Inquiries have been received from clergymen in other areas of the State and from the State Council of Churches and there has been an article about it in the Manchester Union-Leader.

A part of the program is the providing of regular Sunday worship services for the residents. These have been held in the auditorium on all but two Sundays of the past year. The carrying out of this program has been made much easier by the help of the clergy and youth groups of the churches of the County. Clergymen from nineteen towns representing seven denominations have participated in these services that are held on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Youth groups from six churches and choirs from eight have assisted. I would especially like to mention the clergy and young people of the Baptist Church of Plaistow who have attended almost every service since the beginning, assisting the residents from their rooms to the auditorium and visiting in the wards after the services.

Father Langevin of the Epping Roman Catholic Church has given a great deal of his time to serving the Catholic residents, hearing confessions and administering the sacraments of Communion and Extreme Unction. He also conducted the Easter morning service. He is continually on call and is available for any help he can give to the residents. The Rector of the Christ Church, Exeter, conducts Communion for the Episcopal residents on the first Wednesday of each month. The minister of the Pleasant St. Methodist Church in Salem provides a tape recording of the morning service that is brought to the Home by a church member and played for the benefit of those unable to attend the service in the auditorium. Hymnbooks were provided by the Community Church of Newmarket. These are some of the contributions made to the Home by the churches of the County.

So great and genuine has been the response from the residents to this program that many clergymen have offered to return again whenever needed. One man offered to take a service every month.

I would like to thank all those who have helped, giving generously of their time, and to congratulate the County on the caliber of the administration of the County Home & Hospital.

So far we have come. The future should take us further along the way we have begun. With the provision of a chapel and its furnishing that can be available at all times to those who may need spiritual help, with the increased visitations and communication between the residents and their home town and parish, with increased understanding throughout the County of the hopes and plans and problems of those whose task it is to bring help and understanding to its residents, the County Home and Hospital will continue to set a standard for the State.

Respectfully submitted,
Robert Lewis, Director
Dept. of Spiritual Mission

REGISTER OF DEED'S REPORT

To the Honorable Board of Commissioners of Rockingham County

The year 1970 was one of business as usual at the Rockingham County Registry of Deeds with somewhat fewer recordings, an increase in sales of copies and continued progress in our projects, especially in the area of consolidation of older indices. The year 1970 was one of "tight money" with many less loans by lending institutions resulting in a very inactive real estate market. Of course, the impact of this situation seriously affected the revenues of all Registries of Deeds. Fortunately, here in Rockingham, we have been constantly increasing our income by sales of copies made possible by our microfilm program. The increased income from this area kept our total income within approximately $3000.00 of that which we had in 1969.

One of the most rewarding events of my administration was to have several other New Hampshire Registries of Deeds adopt the microfilm system and/or the computer indexing program, which I have pioneered in this office. It was particularly reassuring to have Hillsborough, the largest county in the state, pattern its microfilm system after ours. It is especially desirable to have other counties adopt the same system because this will lead to means of lowering costs. Also, uniformity of the operation of the Registries of Deeds in the ten counties eliminates confusion for the many members of the public who have occasion to use the services of several of the Registries.

Computer indexing eliminates the rather high cost of consolidation of indices as a separate project, and the use of microfilm provides an inexpensive security copy of our records, as well as being a space-saver, and an efficient method of reproducing copies for sale to the public.

Our attention must now be directed to the need for space in our working quarters. When I took office, in 1963, there were 1669 record books. At the close of the seventh year of my administration, there were 2050 record books. This means that, in the past seven years, we have done approximately 15% of all the recordings that have been done in this registry since its establishment in 1643. Large areas of valuable space are required to store these volumes. I previously introduced legislation to enable me to send 140 of the earlier volumes to the New Hampshire Department of Archives and Record Management; and I have also made every effort to efficiently use the space allocated to the Registry of Deeds. Much thought and research will be given this obvious problem during my coming term.

With the continued co-operation and support of the Commissioners, the County Delegation, and those we serve, we look forward to continuing to maintain our high level of service in an efficient and economical manner.

Respectfully submitted,
Edith E. Holland
Register of Deeds

TO THE HONORABLE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF ROCKINGHAM COUNTY

The past year as Register of Probate was indeed challenging with the increased workload of cases to come before the Court. This office processed nearly seventeen hundred new cases with all the related documents. This was three hundred and ten over last year.

The Court granted thirty-nine adoptions in December alone, which was the greatest amount granted at one time in any County in the state.

The new laws enacted by the legislature during the past year have also added to the additional work processed by this Registry.

We continue to have our old volumes rebound and keep our old files up to date.

The ever increasing population of this County has greatly increased the demands of services pertaining to this office, and with the public demanding lower county costs -- we strive to do both.

Our new alpha index system has proven successful and helpful in maintaining fast and efficient service.

Many of the other Registers have visited our office seeking new ideas with regard to our system of handling the case load.

Judge William Treat has been most cooperative in helping with the heavy docket of the Court and the County Commissioners and delegation have indeed been helpful in striving to help us meet our needs for better service to the communities.

It is with great pleasure that I look forward to serving the public this ensuing year.

Respectfully submitted,
Edward J. Howard, Register

COUNTY ATTORNEY'S REPORT

Board of Commissioners
Rockingham County Justice Building
Exeter, New Hampshire 03833

Re: Rockingham County Attorney's Annual Report

Gentlemen:

December 31, 1970 marked the end of my second two year term as Rockingham County Attorney and Carleton Eldge, Esq., of Exeter has been elected to the office. I wish to take this opportunity to thank all those with whom I have been associated for the last four years for their help, consideration and friendship. My interest in and concern with law enforcement will continue and my office will always be available to offer assistance at any time should the occasion arise.

Criminal activity continues to increase in Rockingham County consistent with the general trend throughout the country. For the year ending July 31, 1970 there were 515 new criminal cases entered in the Superior Court and added to the 234 criminal cases already pending. Of these, 473 cases were disposed of. In addition, there were 72 Uniform Reciprocal Support cases responded to.

Unfortunately, as yet the County Attorney has not received needed aid although a bill has been introduced in the General Court to provide for one "full-time" assistant. This matter has become critical and it is hoped that the bill passes.

Respectfully submitted,
Glen E. Graper
Rockingham County Attorney

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT

George Sampson, Sheriff
Justice Building
Exeter, New Hampshire

To The Honorable Board of Rockingham County Commissioners

Gentlemen:

The past year has been an active one for the Department, the continuing rise in the crime rate, the number of investigations, subsequent violators brought before the courts, have increased the work load in proportion. The number of requests from schools and individuals for assistance in dealing with young people and their problems has occasioned the hiring of a juvenile officer for this particular field. The salary of this officer has been partially born by the Governor's Commission on Crime and Delinquency. The increased activity on the part of all law enforcement agencies has necessitated the addition of another dispatcher for our Communication Control Center to offset the additional volume of business funneled through that division of the Department.

The year of 1970 brought about the realization of the establishment of a county-wide communications system. Through the cooperation of all law enforcement agencies and the foresight of the county delegation and county commissioners, the long planned for system to co-ordinate all levels of law enforcement, local, town, city, county and state will achieve the ultimate goal of providing more accurate, efficient and swifter service to all communities within the area at a minimum expense to all departments concerned.

Respectfully submitted,
George Sampson, Sheriff

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY
HOUSE OF CORRECTION & JAIL
Brentwood, New Hampshire

January 27, 1971

To The Honorable Board of County Commissioners of Rockingham County:

Gentlemen:

Having just recently been appointed as Administrator of the Rockingham County House of Correction and Jail, I hereby submit a brief report of the activities and conditions of this facility.

First may I report that as of now we have the finest group of capable dedicated and well trained correction officers that I have ever worked with, their assignments are carried out with a minimum of supervision and the prisoner relation seems perfect.

The entire building has been cleaned from top to bottom, and the repairs that were needed are being done, painting where needed is also in progress, the closed circuit T. V. is very helpful in the overall security and supervision.

We have instituted a music program, Arts and Crafts program and job placement program, religious services are conducted weekly and we are now beginning a drug program in cooperation with the Dept. of Mental Health and Brother Riley of St. Francis College in Rye.

A much needed improvement to the facility would be the addition of a separate building for sentenced inmates, this would separate them from the boundover, hard core inmates and make the rehabilitation program a lot easier.

In closing I would like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Hilton and the staff of the County Home and Hospital for the many acts of kindness and help that they have extended to me, this type of cooperation makes for a more efficient operation of this facility, it is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,
Daniel J. Loud
Administrator

YOUR COOPERATIVE EXTENSION SERVICE

The Cooperative Extension Service is a unique achievement in American Education - an agency for change - a catalyst for individual and group action.

It grew as a partnership of local people, the state land-grant universities, the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and the County Governments. All share in planning and financing Extension Programs.

Its job is informal education to help people help themselves.

Extension transmits practical information on many subjects from research centers and the universities to the public. It presents unbiased facts to help people identify problems and use new technology in solving them to help them make their own decisions and organize to act on those decisions.

Extension Programs follow the guidelines of national objectives but permit a wide latitude in adopting them to local needs. State and national goals are balanced against local requirements.

More than 3,000 Cooperative Extension Offices throughout the nation make up a vast facility for extending knowledge to all Americans, as they strive to build a better agriculture, better homes, better communities, a better world.

Each County in New Hampshire has an Extension Office. Here, an Agricultural Agent, Home Economist, 4-H Youth Development Agent and a County Forester are available to talk with you.

The local governing body that aids in directing the efforts of the Extension Agents is the Extension Service Council, comprised of 13 local people drawn from local commodity groups to represent the people and a member of the County Delegation Finance Committee.

AGRICULTURE

The change in emphasis in the demands and requests made of the Agricultural Agent have been very evident when viewed over the past 10 years. While the agricultural produce generated in the county has only altered slightly in yield, the number of producers has diminished considerable. Where we had 750 commercial farms in 1960, we now have 225 commercial farms. These producers are of necessity more fully trained in their field and better managers.

During this same period the total population in the county has increased from 99,000 to 139,000 people. This increase, one of the largest by percentage, 40+ in the nation, has brought problems to the county and a new set of methods by which we try to solve the problems. During the past ten years we have devoted increasing amounts of time to assisting Rural Area Development Committees, Conservation Commissions, Planning Boards, Cooperative Area Man Power Systems, and other official or quasi-official organizations. Much of the new demand is to work with the same plants, soils and water that we have with farmers, now called Ecology, Waste Disposal, Pollution Abatement, etc.

A major accomplishment achieved this past year was the registration, as a non-profit organization, the New Hampshire Farm Museum, Inc. This endeavor was accepted November 19, 1970 by the Deputy Secretary of State, Edward Kelley. The Museum was established to solicit, collect, preserve and exhibit farm equipment, machinery and other artifacts depicting the farm and rural life of the past to preserve a portion of our heritage.

This year's records show over 2500 individual contacts by telephone, letter or office calls; 5500 publications distributed and over 10,000 circular informative letters sent on request. Over 100 meetings were organized and/or attended.

EXTENSION HOME ECONOMICS

During 1970 volunteer local leaders were trained and gave generously of their time in conducting 376 sessions with 5,324 attendance. They supplemented the efforts of the one full-time Extension Home Economist and the part-time Assistants: Mrs. Priscilla Walker (January to June 1, 1970: 57 days) and Mrs. Edith Lovering (November 10 to December 31, 1970: 22 days). Funds were appropriated for 130 days of assistance, but there was a vacancy for a half year.

The Extension Home Economists participated in 230 meetings with 7,237 people. This made a total of 606 meetings with 12,460 attendance, which exceeded any previous yearly total even without a complete staff all year. Ten years ago the statistics were 430 meetings with 6,865 people. The need for two full-time Home Economists to share the increased work load is apparent in a rapidly growing county.

There were 30 monthly Home Economics Extension groups meeting throughout the county. In addition, work was done with Women's Camp, Rockingham Craftsmen, International Farm Youth Exchange, County 4-H Dress Revue, plus other groups outside Extension as Garden Clubs, Women's Clubs, Church groups, Community Action program, Granges, Junior Women's League, Jayceettes, D.A.R., Libraries, Welcome Wagon, Cancer Society, County Home, Fire Auxiliaries, Home Economics teachers, Mother of Twins Club, and commercial firms who assisted with Extension projects. The cooperation of the Exeter Handkerchief Store in providing a meeting place for Fabric Forums and clothing classes has been much appreciated.

The 1970 subject matter projects emphasized increasing homemakers' knowledge, understanding, and ability to manage their family resources to meet their needs and wants. These included resources of time, money, energy, knowledge and ability to further consumer competence in the market place. Family health, housing, stability, and community resource development were emphasized through individual and group effort.

Methods used included five radio programs weekly (Family Living Reports over WKXR), distribution of 107 circulars to 32,226 people, plus 29,719 bulletins on request. News articles were prepared on county events, tours organized, an encampment, and use of individual and group consultations as well as meetings. These provided information, counsel, and guidance on problems of concern to individuals, families, and organizations. It was a very busy, strenuous year with an increase in group approach methods by the full-time worker.

The support of the Home Economics and Extension Service

Council members was much appreciated. The 16th Williamson-Babb Scholarship was awarded to Patricia Duncklee of Exeter. Through the joint efforts of both volunteer and professional people the Rockingham County Home Economics Extension program contributed to human and community resource development.

Ruth G. Stimson, Extension Home Economist

4-H YOUTH DEVELOPMENT

1970 brought in a new decade of 4-H Youth Development work with 1518 girls and 642 boys involved in yearly clubs throughout Rockingham County.

4-H Youth Development Agents are involved in assisting club leaders, giving educational programs to the clubs, and coordinating county 4-H events, such as Dress Revues, judging contests, fairs, demonstration days, and trips to Isles of Shoals and Ice Follies. In addition the 4-H program broadened this year to include teaching a short course on Babysitting in Portsmouth, helping an elementary teacher in Derry teach the 4-H TV Action Series on Science to her fourth grade classes, and coordinating the promotion of the 4-H TV programs on Emergency Preparedness held for 8 Saturday mornings.

The 4-H Foundation became active in a $10,000 fund raising campaign with funds to be divided between the National 4-H Center Expansion Programs and county programs.

We are indeed proud of all our 4-H members but especially of the 11 who won trips to the National 4-H Congress with 3 winning national college scholarships, of the 2 who won places on the State Poultry Judging team that went to Cincinnati, Ohio, of the County Team who placed tops in the state in livestock judging, and of individuals who were members of the state horse judging and horticultural judging teams.

We also want to recognize the dedicated service of 344 local 4-H leaders without whose help our program would not be possible.

For more information concerning 4-H Youth Development programs contact the 4-H Office.

FOREST RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT

The Cooperative Forest Management Program has emphasized the educational approach in convincing landowners to follow wise land use management practices. In the early stages of the program individual visits were conducted. The forester and owner could discuss forest practices in depth. This method is still employed to some degree, but increased demands on our time indicate the need for more group meetings. This appears to be the most efficient method of extending our information to a larger audience. During the period from July to November, 1969 we had conducted ten (10) demonstrations, tours, and programs, whereas during the corresponding period in 1970 there have been fifty-nine (59) informational activities. Because of the increased emphasis on group activities, we have made sixty-seven (67) fewer individual visits during this period in 1970. Using an average attendance figure of twenty persons per activity, we have presented land use information to 1180 people during this five month period in 1970, compared to only 200 people in 1969. This increase substantially offsets the decrease in individual visits and supports the need for conducting more group meetings.

Recent population figures indicate that Rockingham is the second fastest growing county in New England, boasting a forty percent increase in population from 1969 to 1970. The population explosion is causing many serious land use conflicts. How much land should be devoted to watershed management to meet the increasing demand for quality water; to maintain or increase our wildlife populations; to satisfy the recreational needs of people; and to meet the increasing demand for lumber, pulpwood and other wood fiber? What are the tree management needs of an urbanizing county? During fiscal year 1969 we assisted 179 individuals with shade tree problems. This number grew to a staggering 369 persons in fiscal year 1970. Many other potential calls may have been answered through our timely news releases that presented information on disease and insect problems to the general public.

We will continue to satisfy the needs of both urban and rural people in meeting our objectives for 1971.

Stanley W. Knowles, County Forester
Thomas Neff, Assistant County Forester
